

I am writing to register my displeasure with the prospect of Wisconsin's rights as a state being usurped by the FCC in regard to regulating calls by telemarketers. The Wisconsin "do not call list" serves those of us who are residents well, and we are grateful for it. Our inherent right to privacy is being upheld. The state legislature of Wisconsin has fulfilled its obligation of service to the people in this matter. Please assure the federal government does the same.